		While monitoring traffic in the area of 147 Samoset St during a "Back the blue" rally, I was approached by an anonymous party wishing to report a crime. The anonymous party stated she believed one of the individuals involved in the rally was displaying child pornography from a book. The suspected person, Ms. Rayla Campbell, had a book from the Brockton Public Library which displayed one person performing oral sex on another. While inspecting the book "Gender Queer" on the first page I observed the main character involved in the act state "Back when I was 24". This concluded the character in the book was not a minor. It is worthy to note the book was illustrated in a cartoon / comic fashion. All parties were advised my findings, no further services requested.
